Qualitative

14 What were the instructor's strengths?

- A: They were really good at listening to our questions and thoughts and then correcting us when we were wrong with helpful information.
- A: Charles was the best professor I have had! Amazing teacher; they have great teaching skills, can relate well to students, and are very understanding to the needs of students.
- A: great class, extremely responsive, receptive to students
- A: Charles was extremely organized and knew how to present the material in a way that was easily understandable.
- A: Understanding, knowledgeable
- A: Charles was great! They made the material clear and easy to understand, only assigned things that clearly related to us learning the material better, and was extremely easy to ask questions to and get feedback from.

- A: Very straightforward, encourages use of tools in Microsoft Office and online resources professors may be less likely to suggest.
- A: Charles was very informative and responsive
- A: so helpful!
- A: Made self available for support and to answer questions
- A: Very thorough and down to earth explanations
- A: Responsive, approachable, patient, passionate, compassionate.
- A: I really enjoyed their class. Charles kept us engaged throughout the entire semester. Charles showed deep empathy for all the students and was available for help in person/zoom.
- A: Charles was very clear with the course objectives and broke down the final paper so it was very manageable to get it done by the end. They were always quick to respond to questions and realistic about student expectations.

15 *In what ways might the instructor improve this course?

- A: N/A
- A: This was their first time teaching the course and at times they seemed a little nervous. This is a very dry topic that many social work majors aren't interested in. Overall, they did a great job teaching in an effective way. However, they could have made the class more engaging by encouraging.
- A: great class
- A: Course material was a little dry but that is part of the class.
- A: more application to social work
- A: n/a
- A: the transition to online teaching was a bit rough for me but Charles did the best they could do in teaching statistics online.
- A: n/a
- A: Honestly best stats class I've had
- A: Becoming more comfortable with lecturing. Projecting his voice and taking control of the classroom.
- A: Including interactive in class practice.
- A: Make lecture more interactive
